PERSONAL

Mr. Charles J. Hess
Federal Bureau of Investigation
San Diego, California

Dear Mr. Hess:

I am taking this occasion to commend you for your excellent contributions to the investigation of the Sabotage case involving Bernard Jerome Brous and Dale Christian Jensen.

An assignment of this nature is very difficult to carry out and the successful results are indicative of your competence and your determination to handle your duties in the best traditions of the Bureau. I was highly pleased with your performance and it will serve as a fine example for your associates to emulate. I want you to know of my sincere appreciation.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover
